

Homophones

There vs. They're vs. Their

Use there to name a place, thing or existence of thing

Example: Stand over there.

Use they're when you mean they are.

Examples: They're my friends.

Use their when you are using it as a possessive (relating to them/themselves).

Example: Their clothes are colorful.

Fill in the blanks below using there, they're or their.

1. Take the bag _____ and leave it.

2. They park _____ cars in the street.

3. _____ animals are friendly.

4. Get away from _____.

5. _____ my teachers.

6. _____ good at sports.

7. _____ nice and kind.

8. _____ is an animal outside.

9. They walk _____ dogs at night.

10. _____, look at that!

Hints:

Use they're if you can replace the apostrophe with the word are.

Use their if you can replace it with our. It is almost always followed by a noun.