

Homophones

Who's vs. Whose

Use who's when you mean who is or who has.

Examples: Who's on first base?

Use whose when you are using it as a possessive (of or relating to who, whom or which).

Example: Whose bag is it?

Fill in the blanks below using either who's or whose.

1. _____ in this movie?
2. _____ ticket is this?
3. _____ ready to go?
4. _____ watching this movie?
5. _____ seat is this?

Hint: Use an apostrophe if it is a contraction; if you can replace the apostrophe with the words is or has.